MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director for Management and Services

SUBJECT : Disposition of Gift Received by General Walters

1. It is understood that recently the Deputy Director of Central Intelligence received a gift from a foreign government. It is also understood this gift is of considerable intrinsic value.

2. In the Foreign Gift and Decorations Act of 1966 (P.L. 89-673, 80 Stat. 952, October 15, 1966), Congress gave its limited consent for government officers and employees to accept gifts and decorations from foreign governments. A gift of minimal value may be accepted by an employee, but

... gifts of more than minimal value shall be deemed to have been accepted on behalf of the United States and shall be deposited by the donee for use and disposal as the property of the United States in accordance with the rules and regulations issued pursuant to this Act.

Sec. 4, Pub. L. 89-673.

The Act further directs that the rules and regulations necessary to carry out its purposes are to be prescribed by or under the authority of the President. By Executive Order 11320 of December 9, 1966, the President delegated such authority to the Secretary of State.

3. In exercising the delegation of authority, the Secretary of State has promulgated a regulation which is found at 22 C. F. R. 3 (1973). The regulation defines the term "gift of minimal value" to mean any present or other thing which has a retail value not in excess of $50 in the United States. 22 C. F. R. 3.3(e). When a gift of more than minimal value is tendered and accepted, it is "... accepted and shall be deposited with the Chief of Protocol for disposal...." 22 C. F. R. 3.5(6).

4. Any gift which becomes the property of the United States may be retained for official use by the appropriate agency with the approval of the Chief of Protocol. Any gift not so retained is forwarded to the General Services Administration by the Chief of Protocol for transfer, donation, or other disposal. 22 C. F. R. 3.6. This Office has held that there is no legal objection to retaining gifts which are the property of the United States for official use when the Chief of Protocol is notified. Official use may include placing a gift on display within the Agency or using a gift to decorate an office wall or conference room. The law prohibits the gift from being turned over to the donee. OGC 68-1992, October 10, 1966.

5. This Office will be glad to contact the Chief of Protocol to arrange for the retention of the gift by the Agency and to assist in any other way possible.

ACCEPTANCE OF GIFTS FROM FOREIGN GOVERNMENTS

The Agency's policy with respect to acceptance of gifts, awards or decorations from foreign governments is contained in Headquarters STAT Regulation [redacted]. This regulation is patterned on regulations issued by the Secretary of the State as contained in 22 C.F.R. Part 3, which regulations draw their authority from 5 U.S.C. 7342 and E.O. 11320. Copies of these are attached.

A gift or decoration having a retail value not exceeding $50 may be accepted and retained by an employee, but a gift in excess of $50 is determined to have been accepted on behalf of the United States and must be deposited for use and disposal as the property of the United States. A gift or decoration to a member of an employee's immediate family or household is treated as a gift to him. Employees under official cover are directed by the regulation to comply with the regulations and practices of their cover organization. All employees are required to report all gifts to the Director of Personnel, and the Deputy Director responsible for the employee will review each report and advise the Director of Personnel of any security or cover circumstances affecting the distribution of the gift. The Director of Personnel is required to make a determination regarding the disposition of the gift and in those cases where the employee may not retain it, the Director of Personnel is required to provide for its storage or other disposition.

STAT

Sources: The provisions of this Part 3 contained in Dept. Reg. 108.558, 32 F.R. 6569, Apr. 28, 1967, unless otherwise noted.

§ 3.1 Purpose.

The purpose of this part is to establish uniform basic standards for the acceptance of gifts and decorations from foreign governments by U.S. Government officers and employees, including members of the armed forces, and members of their families.

§ 3.2 Application of this part.

This part applies to all persons occupying an office or a position in the Executive, Legislative and Judicial branches of the Government of the United States.

§ 3.3 Definitions.

As used in this part—

—(a) The term "person" includes every person who occupies an office or a position in the Government of the United States, its territories and possessions, the Canal Zone Government, and the Government of the District of Columbia, or is a member of the Armed Forces of the United States, or a member of the family and household of any such person. For the purpose of this part, "member of the family and household" means a relative by blood, marriage or adoption who is a resident of the household.

§ 3.4

Title 22—Foreign Relations

(b) The term "foreign government" includes every foreign government and every official, agent, or representative thereof.

(c) The term "gift" includes any present or thing, other than a decoration, tendered by or received from a foreign government.

(d) The term "decoration" includes any order, device, medal, badge, insignia, or emblem tendered by or received from a foreign government.

(e) The term "gift of minimal value" includes any present or other thing, other than a decoration, which has a retail value not in excess of $50 in the United States.

(f) The term "outstanding or unusually meritorious performance" includes performance of duty by a person determined by the appropriate agency to have contributed to an unusually significant degree to the furtherance of good relations between the United States and the foreign government tendering the decoration.

(g) The term "special or unusual circumstances" includes any circumstances which would appear to make it improper for the donee to receive a gift or decoration, and also includes, in some instances, the very nature of the gift itself.

(h) The term "appropriate agency" means the department, agency, office, or other entity in which a person is employed or enlisted, or to which he has been appointed or elected. If the donee is not so serving, but is a member of the family and household of such a person, then the "appropriate agency" is that in which the head of the household is serving.

(i) The term "approval by the appropriate agency" includes approval by such person or persons as are duly authorized by such agency to give the approval required by these regulations.

(j) The term "Chief of Protocol" means the Chief of Protocol of the Department of State.

§ 3.4 Release of gifts and decorations on deposit in the Department of State through October 14, 1966.

Any gift or decoration on deposit with the Department of State on the effective date of this part shall, following written application to the Chief of Protocol and subsequent approval by the Chief of Protocol and the appropriate agency, be released through the appropriate agency to the donee or his legal representative.

Such donee may also, if authorized by the appropriate agency, wear any decoration so released. Approval for release will normally be given unless, from the special or unusual circumstances involved, it would appear to the Chief of Protocol to be improper to release the item. Any gifts or decorations not approved for release will become the property of the U.S. Government and will be used or disposed of in accordance with the provisions of § 3.6.

§ 3.5 Gifts and decorations received by any person after October 14, 1966.

(a) General policy. No person shall request or otherwise encourage the tender of a gift or decoration.

(b) Gifts of minimal value. Subject to individual agency regulations, table favors, mementos, remembrances, or other tokens bestowed at official functions, and other gifts of minimal value received as souvenirs or marks of courtesy from a foreign government may be accepted and retained by the donee. The burden of proof is upon the donee to establish that the gift is of minimal value as defined by this part.

(c) Gifts of more than minimal value. Where a gift of more than minimal value is tendered, the donor should be advised that it is contrary to the policy of the United States for persons in the service thereof to accept substantial gifts. If, however, the refusal of such a gift would be likely to cause offense or embarrassment to the donor, or would adversely affect the foreign relations of the United States, the gift may be accepted and shall be deposited with the Chief of Protocol for disposal in accordance with the provisions of § 3.6.

(d) Decorations. Decorations received which have been tendered in recognition of active field service in connection with combat operations, or which have been awarded for outstanding or unusually meritorious performance, may be accepted and worn by the donee with (1) the approval by the appropriate agency and (2) the concurrence of the Chief of Protocol. Within the Department of State, the decision as to whether a decoration has been awarded for outstanding or unusually meritorious performance will be the responsibility of the supervising Assistant Secretary of State or comparable officer for the person involved. In the absence of approval and concurrence under this paragraph, the decoration shall become the property of the United States and shall be deposited by the donee with the Chief of Protocol for use or disposal in accordance with the provisions of § 3.6. Notwithstanding the foregoing, decorations tendered to U.S. military personnel for service in Viet-Nam may be accepted and worn as provided by the Act of October 19, 1965, Public Law 89-257, 79 Stat. 982.

§ 3.6 Use or disposal of gifts and decorations which become the property of the United States.

Any gift or decoration which becomes the property of the United States under this part may be retained for official use by the appropriate agency with the approval of the Chief of Protocol. Gifts and decorations not so retained shall be forwarded to the General Services Administration by the Chief of Protocol for transfer, donation, or other disposal in accordance with such instruction as may be furnished by that officer. In the absence of such instructions, such property will be transferred or disposed of by the General Services Administration in accordance with the provisions of the Federal Property and Administrative Services Act of 1949, 63 Stat. 377, as amended, and the Federal Property Management Regulations (41 CFR Ch. 101, Subchapter H). Such reports shall be submitted to General Services Administration, Region 3, Attention: Property Management and Disposal Service, Seventh and D Streets SW., Washington, D.C. 20407.
